

Two Men Accused In Miami Swindles Are Held in Denver

Suspects Arrested in Connection With $1,000,000 Bunko Plot Also Wanted for Florida Conspiracies

DENVER, Aug. 26.—Harry D. White, said to be wanted by Federal authorities on a charge of swindling S. T. Tuck, of Plainfield, N. J., of $80,000 at Miami, Fla., on March 17, 1921, was arrested here late today by agents of the District Attorney's office, who have been conducting raids on an alleged $1,000,000 "bunko ring."

White, according to District Attorney Van Cise, also has been known under the names of "Sam Bernett," "Harry Witting," "H. Lader" and "Harry Whitney." He was arrested when he attempted to cash a $100 money order said to have been sent him by another alleged swindler whose activities local authorities have been investigating.

The law moved swiftly today in the round-up of supposed members of the ring which is charged with fleecing tourists out of $1,000,000 in a summer's operations. While twenty-nine of the thirty-three men arrested last night were being arraigned District Attorney Van Cise returned to Denver from Estes Park bringing Homer French, who is involved in a $120,000 swindling job in Miami, Fla.

The twenty-nine suspects pleaded not guilty to a charge of conspiracy to operate a confidence game. Only two of the prisoners were able to furnish the $25,000 bail demanded.

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 26.—Homer French was indicted here with two others last May for the alleged swindling of $120,000 last winter from Peter Nicholson, Middle Western banker and mine operator, and $50,000 bond was fixed for each of the defendants in the event of their arrest.

Nicholson came here personally to present his complaint to the grand jury. The authorities believe that his home is near Cleveland. The alleged swindle took place at a clubhouse here, which the authorities never were able to locate.

A secret indictment was returned, which was not made public until nearly three weeks later, when State Attorney Grambling told the court he had reason to believe the defendants knew the indictment had been handed down.

Mail Box at Every Door, Order From Washington

Delays Caused in Delivery Inspire Reform; 4 Months' Notice Given

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Instructions were sent to all postmasters today by First Assistant Postmaster-General Bartlett to require all householders within four months to install mail boxes or cut slots in doors to facilitate the delivery of mail. Such of those as do not meet the requirement may have the delivery of their mail discontinued, Mr. Bartlett said.

"On account of the delays caused to carriers at dwelling houses where no door slot or mail receptacle is provided and the fact that a large majority of dwellings are thus equipped already," the Assistant Postmaster-General's instructions said, "it seems timely, within a reasonable period, to require all who are to receive mail by street carriers at their dwellings to provide such accommodations, the expense of the same being small."

The length of the notice should not exceed four months, although there may be exceptional cases, where masters should use reasonable discretion or ask for instructions.

Hotel Man Finds $210 Missing After Dry Agents' Search

Cash Box of Long Branch Resort Empty, He Asserts, and Inquiry and Arrest of Raiders Are Demanded

Two hundred and ten dollars was reported missing from the cash box of the O'Malley Hotel, Long Branch, N. J., yesterday, following a search by prohibition agents. The hotel was one of sixteen places raided by the agents.

John Davies, proprietor of the hotel, said he would ask for the arrest of the agents who searched his place and a police or jury investigation of what became of the cash. The money, he said, was general earnings from his hotel business.

Mr. Davies said he was absent from the hotel when seven prohibition agents appeared with a search warrant. They insisted on making a search. Mrs. Davies, he said, took five of the men through the upper floors, while two remained in the old barroom, where a desk and cash box are situated.

In searching the hotel, Mr. Davies said, the agents went through closets and drawers and even made one of his guests, a woman who long has been ill, get up from her sick bed while they prowled around her room.

After the men departed, Mr. Davies said, he returned to the hotel, went at once to his cash box and found it rifled. Davies asserted positively that besides the prohibition agents only his wife and himself had had access to the box. He said no liquor was found by the agents.
